Did You Know?

Dollar bills weren't always green. Colonial money for example, was tan with black or red ink. It wasn't until the Civil War that the government started using green ink to print paper money where it got the name greenbacks. The color was selected because the ink didn't fade or easily decompose, which protected against counterfeiting.

CSB Chuckles

A criminal robbed a bank wearing a suit made of many mirrors. But he turned himself in after taking some time to reflect. Luckily the judge was lenient, as he saw a lot of himself in the young man.

Amy Hove

Amy was born in Iowa but has lived most of her life in Minnesota. She graduated from Staples High School and attended Moorhead State University and Staples AVTI. She then worked 10 years in retail and retail management in South Dakota before moving to Roseau. Amy and Dan have two daughters, five grandsons, a dog, and two cats. She enjoys camping, fishing, hiking, and traveling. Amy has worked in several different departments during her 32 years at CSB and has always appreciated the flexibility that is allowed to the employees for their families. She especially enjoys the customers. All the wonderful "characters" she has met over the years and listening to their stories has made her time at CSB truly enjoyable.

Laurie was born in Roseau and grew up in rural Warroad. Laurie has been married to Rex for 46 years and together they have lived in Warroad; Rhame, ND; Indus, MN; Mesa, AZ; and Salol, MN. They have two daughters, two son-in-laws, four grandchildren, and two great grandsons. The youngest great grandson turns two on their anniversary in October! Outside of work, Laurie enjoys quilting, four-wheeling, and camping. When asked what she likes most about her job, Laurie said that she has always enjoyed helping others so being a teller and bookkeeper is a good fit for her. She also loves her co-workers!

The Banker's Banquet Recipes

Creamy Chicken Pinwheels

Ingredients:

- 8 oz package of cream cheese, softened
- 1½ Tbsp Ranch Mix
- 1 Cup Shredded Cheddar Cheese
- 1 to 2 Tbsp Milk
- ¾ Cup Cooked, Chopped Bacon
- 1 Cup Cooked, Chopped Chicken
- 4 or 5 Large Burrito Tortillas (10-inch)

Directions:

Mix softened cream cheese with the ranch powder, cheddar cheese, 1 Tbsp milk, bacon, and chicken until well combined. Add more milk if desired. Spread about ¼ cup of chicken mixture evenly on each tortilla. Roll the tortilla up gently, yet tightly to make sure it holds together and keeps its shape. Refrigerate for about 30 minutes to firm up the softened cheese. Cut ends of tortilla roll and cut into 1-inch slices. Serve and Enjoy!
